You also get over 720 unique and awesome CD quality sounds, including great pianos, killer synth basses, excellent strings, brass and woodwinds, 17 drumkits plus 4 user programmable drumkit memories and fully programmable effects. Speaking of effects, the MU80 has 5 separate processors on board a programmable reverb, a programmable chorus, a 'multi-effect' processor including the famous apex 'aural exciter' algorithm, Leslie 'rotary' speaker, auto-wah, eq, distortion, delays, a dedicated distortion and overdrive insert effect and a global eq processor for extra punch live or in the studio. You can have different effects send levels from every one of your 32 synth parts to any effects module, and best of all, you can process one stereo or two mono signals from the front panel digitising input as well!

Plug a guitar or a mike into this module and be amazed - top quality Yamaha effects from your MIDI sound module. For all you home studio freaks this is absolutely unbeatable value. Keyboard players have got to try the MU80 also because the performance mode lets you layer and split up to 4 parts for the FATTEST sounds imaginable (while still retaining 16-note polyphony) from a single midi channel - so this is the perfect live sound module too...and what a killer price? Tens of thousands of quality midi files are now available in every musical style so obtaining sensational sounding backing is now more affordable than ever. What is a MIDI File Player: A MIDI file player works in a similar fashion to your CD player at home...it plays back musical arrangements (backing tracks usually) stored onto 3.5in computer disks. The sounds you hear are stored inside the MDP-2 and triggered by the files you load. You can change tracks at random, speed it up, slow it down, change keys instantly etc etc. You just plug it into your PA or guitar amp, load up your favourite MIDI file, select your track and push play...instant backing...instant quality...night after night after night. Your MDP-2 is your band, you just play and sing along with it, and, best of all, it only takes 5 minutes to pack it up and go home...YES PLEASE!

Tone Generator: The MDP-2 is loaded with 189 superb 'CD quality' voices plus 9 drumkits, 128 of these are General MIDI voices to give you all the versatility you need for todays sophisticated midi files. Massive 32-voice polyphony ensures you of the thickest sound production for the most powerful backing your music could wish for!! 16-track Digital Sequencer: Use the built-in 16-track 50,000 note sequencer as a push-button multitrack recording studio. Record and playback with the sounds on board. Large easy to read display confirms all your operations keeping you in the picture...and it's so easy to use you won't believe it!

General MIDI Compatibility: General MIDI, or GM, is an extension of the MIDI standard which guarantees specification for files. This means your MDP-2 will read and play MIDI files generated by other GM instruments. So, for example, you could play back MIDI files recorded by a friend on another GM instrument, and even add your own tracks to it etc.

What's new in Midi for XMAS?

Cubasis Audio:

$595

Cubasis Audio is the fantastic new tool for taking your PC midi sequences where they could never go before - you can now record your vocals or guitar straight on top through your PC soundcard!

Import any standard midi file or existing Cubase Lite or Cubasis file into the sequencer section, select a "wave audio" track for recording, then simply play or sing into the input of your soundcard. You now can play back your recording in perfect Sync with your sequence. Imagine the possibilities! You can now insert special effects or other Wave samples directly into your sequence and have up to four stereo audio tracks play back at once. Another way of recording would be to use Cubasis Audio like a digital four track, and then lay down as many "virtual" tracks of keyboards as you want!

We recommend the Roland RAP-10 as the ideal audio sampling and playback card for Cubasis Audio ($695) because it sounds great, has a fantastic general midi synthesiser built in, and can (most importantly) record and play back at the same time (some of the cheaper soundblaster cards and their clones can't).

You do need quite a bit of spare hard drive space to run this program, and a pretty fast computer - just call Grant at the city store or Peter at the Parramatta store for details! Sorry no Academic discounts on this program!

Up to 4 stereo audio tracks simultaneously!

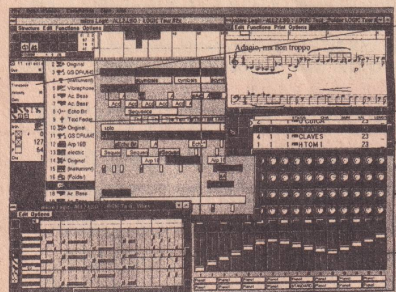

Assign any track to be midi or audio. You have control.

Easy scoring! For any or all of your midi tracks

That's how the jammer works. Mix and fool with styles to come up with music that's never been heard before! Really cool fun, please call for your $5 demo diskette (refundable on purchase)

| Power Sequencing at an affordable price! | $229 | $189 |
| Virtually unlimited tracks of recording, easy and intuitive editing, and powerful "object-oriented" sequence environment which allows non-destructive transposition and quantising for easy auditioning of different musical feels. Features the same powerful sequencer engine with the best timing on the market as the full blown Logic package. Great score editing and printing for a package of this price; Version 1.6 has lots of great new features like quicktime movie support - certainly the best budget choice for Mac owners. | $279 (V. 1.5 for PC) $279 (V. 1.6 for Mac) | $229 |

Logic

|---|--------|-------|
| The name says it all. Take all the best features of the most popular sequencing packages in the last decade, and implement them in a way that makes sense - it's an Absolute must-see for the experienced computer musician. Unique features include the ability to create "screensets" 90 of which can be accessed at the touch of a key customise your preferred working environment - allowing you to be spontaneous and intuitive (Yes that's right, with a computer...), or get gnarly and create complex midi routings with ease in the unique "environment" window. Built in software midi effects let you arpeggiate with ease, create midi delays, assign complex chords to single keys (great for closet two finger players), transpose, transform and heaps more. Version 2.5 for Mac adds heaps of new scoring features, "touch tracks" (real-time triggering of multitrack phrase sequences from assignable keys), and loads of other goodies. |---|--------|-------|

Logic Audio

|--|--------|--------|
| Extremely versatile and powerful digital audio recording / editing integrated into the Logic system. The most versatile and professional audio recording sequencer available; Logic Audio is fully compatible with professional audio hardware systems from Digidesign and Yamaha, but, coolest of all, it will record multiple tracks (6 - 12, depending on system speed) of 16 bit audio on Quadra AV's and certain Powermacs with no additional hardware at all! Additional killer audio features built in at no extra cost include time compression/ expansion / pitch correction, regrooving of audio from either percentage based swing templates or groove templates derived from midi input. Make a straight feel funky or a swing feel solid! Regrooving can also be applied from audio samples to your midi sequences. Borrow a feel from your favorite album! But wait there's more, and not a single steak knife in sight. Custom Emagic audio algorithms (the Audio Energiser) allow you to literally get the most out of digital recordings - it's much better than straight gain normalisation (although you get that too). Also included is a new noise and spike reduction tool that cleans up recordings dramatically while maintaining phase and frequency accuracy. New features common to the sequencer and audio components are "hyper draw" arrange objects - (draw panning and volume curves directly into your recordings), "drag and drop" environment objects for quick custom setups of audio and midi. This program really is the ultimate power tool for digital recordists and existing sequencer users. | $1699 | $1249 |

Introducing the new 360w JBL EON Sound System

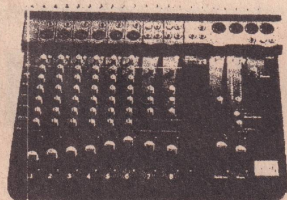

Introducing EON. JBL's first fully-matched sound system designed to deliver hassle-free professional sound. Ideal for any live performance application or churches and schools etc. This new JBL system consists of 2 X 180w powered 15-inch, bi-amped, 2-way speakers, a 10-channel stereo mixer, 2 JBL E50S quality vocal microphones and all the necessary cables to run the system. The components are fully-integrated - which means the mixer, speakers and mikes are built to work together without a hitch. No buzzes, no hums, no noise....just lots of top quality, loud clean sound ! The EON system is so easy to use. Setting it up takes just 5 minutes. It's a system designed to be lightweight yet extraordinarily powerful ! Portable yet durable. Simple yet professional and even though this system is filled with features currently found only in extremely high-end professional components, it's affordable. Getting a sound system to and from a gig has never been a picnic. If you have roadies, it's no problem. If not you're looking at lifting close to 200lbs on average. But with EON, it's different. EON is the only pro sound system that's made to be portable. That means portable for everyone. We're not just talking about the ergonomic handles on the side. We're talking about a new breakthrough technology developed by the engineers at JBL that makes it possible to build a professional sounding speaker that weighs at least 20lbs LESS than most other speakers. The secret behind EON's featherweight is a rare earth material called neodymium. It's a magnetic material that has 10 times the magnetic strength of ceramic magnets. So instead of building a speaker with a 20lb magnet, the EON has a smaller, lighter, yet powerful 1.8lb magnet.

Now you may be wondering if lightweight means light sound. In reality it's exactly the opposite. With this new innovative technology, there's no compromise in performance. This system can crank and best of all it comes delivered in one box complete with everything you see pictured above. Call and ask about our free 10-day home trial & our free delivery to most major Australian centres. 5 year Aussie wide warranty.
